

ARE YOU FACING EVICTION?

HIGH PLAINS FAIR HOUSING CENTER MAY BE ABLE TO HELP.

High Plains FHC is now offering an eviction prevention program to income-qualified residents living in the cities of:

Grand Forks • Bismarck • Fargo

How it works:

If you are interested in the program, please call our intake number listed below and someone will get back to you. Then, the intake person will confirm your level of income and whether or not you are eligible for the program. If you are considered eligible, the intake person will explore various ways to try and prevent the eviction, such as:

- Referral to and help applying for rental assistance programs.
- Assistance in requesting the CDC Eviction Moratorium protections.
- Connection to a lawyer at no cost to you for assistance in eviction court.

Program does not offer financial assistance. Open only to low-income residents living within the city limits of Bismarck, Fargo, and Grand Forks. Income verification is required for program eligibility.

Paid for with CDBG funds from the cities of Bismarck, Fargo, and Grand Forks.
